Salima

By James Denison-Pender

Paperback. Book Condition: New. James Denison-Pender (illustrator). Paperback. 101 pages. Jo is a bright ten year old girl who loves stories. She and her favorite teddy bear Lucas have a frightening encounter in the woods near her home. This leads to a strange new friendship with a beautiful little girl from long ago and far away. Her new friend prompts her to an act of kindness which requires her to make a personal sacrifice. As a result of these events an extraordinary story is told to her from a thousand years ago and a thousand miles away. It is a story of the conflict between the demands of a harsh religion and the love of learning, arts and sciences. It also tells of the yearning of a little girl to be allowed to go to school. It still has resonances in the modern world. Though written for children, particularly girls aged 8 to 12, this is quite a serious little book which can also appeal to adults. In style it is closer to the romantic movement than the digital age. Though the climax of the book is a very colourful and dramatic tale from the past, at the heart of...
