Resurrecting Jesus: Separating the Fiction of the Pundits from the Truth of the Gospels by Hal Moroz. It is the goal of this book that you, the reader, resurrect Jesus! In your life and community, have Him live in and through you! And it begins by resurrecting the name of Jesus during the Christmas season, and at Easter time, and throughout the year. Resurrecting Jesus means believing the Gospel and turning from the direction the pundits would have you go, and seeking the Kingdom of God. And if and when you find it -- and I pray you will find it -- share it! The simple truth is that in Mark 1: 15, Jesus Christ commands, believe the Gospel. However, the sad truth is that few actually believe the Gospel. Case in point is the chief critic of the Gospel, a pompous cable TV personality and author who has effectively rewritten the gospel, proclaiming, amongst other things, that the gospels are in error. That is to say, Jesus, his mother, and Joseph did not travel from Bethlehem to Egypt to escape Herods plot following His birth, Jesus was killed because He interfered with Judeo-Roman commerce, Jesus did not speak from the cross because he was suffocating at the time and was unable to speak, and the cross was not actually a cross, but a T. Literally anything is said to undermine our traditional understanding of Jesus and our belief in the inerrancy of the Holy Bible, and the list of these outrageous claims by the so-called experts goes on and on. This media pundit, and others like him, have rewritten the gospels, and in so doing, attempt to...
