Not illustrated. 1840 Excerpt: . the coveys with greater certainty of obtaining a good shot; for, the birds, having fed without being disturbed, lie better during the remainder of the day. It generally happens, when a good covey is put up, that the parent birds, desirous of securing the safety of their progeny, will first spring upon the wing to lead the way for the rest of the family. It is then the shooter s object to bang at the first bird that rises; and if he can manage to kill both the old cock and the hen, and then divide the remainder of the covey, he may probably succeed in bagging every bird, as the young brood, losing the guidance of their parents, become confused and fearful, and are then easily killed. But, if the greedy shooter fires into the whole covey at once, with both barrels, wounding more...
