Zuccotti Park Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. R Black (illustrator). New.. 208 x 138 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Told through the eyes of four homeowners--a grandmother in Detroit, an entrepreneur in rural North Carolina, a disabled man in Chattanooga, and a mother in Chicago-- A Dream Foreclosed presents a people s history of the U.S. financial crisis and the rise of a people s movement for economic justice, dignity, and freedom from foreclosure. As many of the families victimized by bank fraud, predatory loans and other corporate crimes are African American, communities of color have been among the most outspoken and organized in confronting the banks. Woven throughout Gottesdiener s page-turning narrative are clear explanations of the origins of the crisis, the consequences for housing, and how community organizing and social movements are having national impact.
