

If You Really Trust Me, Why Can't I Stay Out Later?

By Peterson, Lorraine

Bloomington, Minnesota, U.S.A.: Bethany House Pub, 1991. Soft cover. Book Condition: New. Ingram: Lorraine Peterson has written a teen devotional that speaks powerfully to teens growing up in a foolishly permissive society, showing that obeying God is always best, that there are consequences for disobedience, that living it up is really a downer, and that right living works. About the Author: Lorraine Peterson is an award-winning writer whose experience as a junior-high teacher provides a rich background for communicating with young people. Originally from Minnesota, she makes her home in Mexico and continues her work with teens. size : 5.3 x 8.3.
