This book addresses habits and offers advice that is brushed over in other books but rarely discussed in detail. This book asks you to take a cold hard look at your views of marriage, your faith and your view of yourself. This book challenges attitudes and habits that can sabotage relationships. This book goes over believing in God s desire and ability to help you find a mate, your active character building in preparation for that mate, how un-forgiveness can affect your ability to find a mate, and many others. There is no way boot camp can completely train you for the rigors of war but you stand a better chance of survival if well trained.
