PIERO'S LIGHT: IN SEARCH OF PIERO DELLA FRANCESCA: A RENAISSANCE PAINTER AND THE

Pegasus. 1 Cloth(s), 2014. hard. Book Condition: New. In the heart of Tuscany at the dawn of the Renaissance, Piero della Francesca became a painter and mathematician, revealing his innovative mind in some of the best known images from that period as well as his unusual writings on geometry. Yet as a personality, Piero remains a mystery, and he left an enigmatic legacy that ranges from the merging of religion and mathematics to his use of perspective to make painting a "true science." Also the author of By Design: Science and the Search for God and Picasso and the Chess Player, Larry Witham gives us the story of one remarkable artist of the early Italian Renaissance painter at the crossroads of our modern revolutions in art, religion, science."The author grapples with a sweeping retelling of the known story, not only in the context of Italian early Renaissance culture but also in terms of how that story was interpreted in 19th and 20th-century criticism. It is in this latter perspective that Witham's contribution is most illuminating, particularly the chapter entitled 'Piero and Modernity'."New Criterion 354.
