Kent A novel of adventure, fantasy, horror, humor -- and monsters! -- for Middle Grade Readers. 124 pages Published in digital form and as Createspace trade paperback. THE STOKER LEGACY Hannah was born into a family of famous monster hunters. Maybe thats why shes always felt like an outsider. But with her grandfathers instruction, shes starting to understand just who she is and what her destiny will be. The Great Lakes are in terrible danger. A madman with a horrifying plan is on the loose. And Hannahs grandfather is the only one who can stop him. But hes missing NOW ITS UP TO HER AND HER NEW FRIENDS --- Hannah watched in horror as the lightning from the raging storm lit up the scene like a photographers flash. The madman who stood at the ships bow angrily pointed at the werewolf and a tree-trunk sized tentacle whipped out from the vortex and wrapped itself around the beast, binding him tightly in place. Then the madman chanted a stream of some forgotten language and long, slimy appendages likewise whipped out and captured the mummy and the vampire. The Consumer had all of them in its grip! The madman cackled maniacally and shouted into the wind. Hannah took a deep breath. She had only one chance to make things right. --- This book combines the thrills of a supernatural parable-cum-adventure tale with the charm of a coming-of-age story. The protagonist, Hannah, is clever and strong, but touchingly vulnerable. I Was a Seventh Grade Monster Hunter will keep you enthralled until the very end, when you might wonder who the real monsters are....
