We have heard these horror stories about children who are abandoned or children who are placed at great risk because they are unfortunate enough to end up in these situations. And even though it is not well-known among the Members of even Congress and perhaps the public, I know that Congressman Cardoza has a special experience with this situation of children who were at risk because of their parents having been on methamphetamine. And I would just like to ask you if the children that you have knowledge of are safely being cared for now Mr. C. Well, it varies, Ms. Waters. And thank you for ARDOZA your recognition. When we got our children from the foster care system, they had been abandoned by their mother, who was a methamphetamine addict. They were in foster care, being somewhat abused for a second time, and a CASA volunteer saved our kids, a kindergarten teacher that recognized that my son was under severe stress and could see it in the classroom. We were lucky and our children were lucky. We were lucky to get them. They are wonderful kids. They will be great adults if we don't - I often joke, if we let them live that long, they will be great adults. Like any kids, they are persnickety and get into mischief. But we love them deeply, and they are in a great situation now. But the impact from the years that they were...
